INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

Hylink Digital Solutions Co., Ltd., Shanghai Branch | Brand Planning Intern, Content & Creative Department Jun 2025 - Aug 2025

- Supported the MECO Fruit Tea concert marketing proposal for Xiangpiaopiao by synthesizing the brand brief, competitor campaigns, and young consumers' fan-support, interaction, and photo-sharing behaviors. Identified an opportunity to turn the beverage into a shareable live-event prop and proposed a "Light-Up Cup" concept that was carried forward as one of the directions for further proposal development.
- Contributed to the MCLON "Cute Pets" IP collaboration proposal by researching jewelry and youth-oriented brand collaborations and analyzing young consumers' interest in self-reward, companionship, luck, and symbolic meaning. Proposed three collaboration directions, including a Mount Wutai concept, based on audience relevance, brand fit, and product potential.
- Screened xiaohongshu KOLs using exposure performance, cost efficiency, follower activity, audience demographics, content relevance, and brand fit. Supported initial KOL outreach by confirming interest, quotations, availability, and basic cooperation information. Consolidated meeting decisions and revision notes, and supported coordination across strategy, creative, design, and copy teams.

Yicai Media Co., Ltd. (Shanghai Media Group) | Content Intern, Video Interview Department Jun 2024 - Aug 2024

- Monitored macroeconomic, consumer-sector, and commercial-brand developments. Supported company and industry research for potential business stories and the evaluation of story leads based on newsworthiness, timeliness, and interview feasibility.
- Collaborated with reporters, camera crews, and post-production teams on 20+ business and financial news reports, including a Clarins brand interview, a Unilever media salon, the Shanghai International Film and Television Festival, and industry summits; supported on-site interviews, note-taking, guest coordination, and production execution.
- Contributed to news copy, interview scripts, and video scripts; selected key interview footage and adapted information order and pacing for television and short-form platforms. Independently completed footage selection, editing, subtitles, and basic graphics. Several Douyin posts received 3,000+ likes, with the top-performing post exceeding 11,000 likes.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Trendsetter Lab | Douyin Content Operations Jul 2025 - Dec 2025

- Developed the account's core "campus makeover series" content direction during the cold-start stage by analyzing audience interest in visual transformation, contrast, and practical advice, as well as the topic and narrative structures of high-performing competitor videos. Planned and produced 16 themed episodes across topic selection, scripting, shoot coordination, editing, and publishing.
- Reviewed views, completion rate, engagement metrics and follower growth to identify stronger audience responses to before-and-after contrast, character stories, and reveal moments; optimized hooks, script pacing, and result presentation, coordinated on-camera and post-production contributors, and helped grow the account by 1,200+ followers.
